The 1689 Confession— Pastor Charles Swann and Elder Chris Olds

Announcements

Happy Mothers Day to all our moms and grand-mothers. Here are some encouraging words to keep persevering as a godly mother.

Charles Spurgeon recounts his Sunday afternoons with his mother as a child:

"I cannot tell you how much I owe to the solemn words of my good mother. It was the custom on Sunday evenings, while we were yet little children, for her to stay at home with us, and then we sat round the table and read verse by verse, and she explained the Scripture to us. After that was done, then came the time of pleading; there was a little piece of Alleyn's Alarm, or of Baxter's Call to the Unconverted, and this was read with pointed observations made to each of us as we sat round the table; and the question was asked how long it would be before we would think about our state, how long before we would seek the Lord. Then came a mother's prayer, and some of the words of a mother's prayer we shall never forget, even when our hair is grey."

For anyone participating or thinking of participating in co-op next year, there will be an informational and organizational meeting after church starting promptly at 12:30 on the 1st of June in the fellowship hall. We will answer any question for prospective members and will go over structure, classes and teachers for the upcoming school year! Please bring your lunch (and lunch for family if they are staying) and feel free to eat as we converse. If you are interested and this would be your first year, please see Kerri Olds, Katie Prinz, or Lindsey Herrera for a mission statement and guidelines packet before the actual meeting so you can read it and make sure it is a good fit for your family.

Reminder: we have a free church directory app. If you need to be added, or need help updating your listing/picture, please contact Coie 803-397-4303.

Next Lord's day is Mother's Day. We will not be having our Second Sunday Fellowship meal. We hope that it will give a needed break for our mothers and an opportunity to have time with your mom's.

On May 18th, Pastor Swann and his family will be in Florida celebrating his mom's 90th birthday. Chris Olds will be preaching and Sandy Allen leading worship through music.
