The 1689 Confession— Pastor Charles Swann and Elder Chris Olds

Announcements

On behalf of our publishing team and the many believers across Ukraine who are being equipped and strengthened through sound doctrine, I want to express my deep gratitude to you. Thank you for your generous support of Robert and for sharing in the vision of getting trustworthy theological resources into the hands of pastors, preachers, and church leaders across our country.

Your partnership is meeting a vital need. While the shelves in the United States are filled with solid Christian books, the situation here in Ukraine is very different. Our pastors and seminary students often have little to no access to faithful, biblically grounded resources in their own language. Many are eager to grow and to shepherd God's people faithfully, but they lack the tools that have long blessed churches in the English-speaking world.

Each book we are able to translate and publish is an investment in the long-term health of the church in Ukraine. These books are not just for the classroom - they are shaping the preaching in our brothers and sisters, the teaching in our small groups, the decisions in our elder boards, and the formation of future leaders. They help guard the church against error and strengthen her in the truth.

By supporting this ministry, you are helping to lay a foundation that will bear fruit for generations to come. You are training pastors. You are discipling church members. You are making sound doctrine accessible in a time of both great opportunity and great need.

From our hearts — thank you. May the Lord continue to bless your church as you serve the global body of Christ.

With gratitude and joy in Christ, Mykola Leliovskyi.
